SATURDAY, JULY 1ST Continued3:30 PM - 5:00 PM*SYMPOSIUM: Vodou in the Age of Consciousness

The Haitian Art Society explores VODOU IN THE AGE OF CONSCIOUSNESS at The Fowler Museum at UCLA in a symposium inspired by the exhibition of Myrlande Constant: The Work of Radiance. This symposium expands on the groundbreaking retrospective of a female artist living and working in Haiti, renowned for monumental, beaded textiles that evolve the dazzling tradition of 'drapo Vodou' or Vodou flags.

Vodou is a theme throughout Constant's oeuvre and part of the artist's identity and worldview. Constant's work features the lwa (Vodou spirits), Catholic saints, and regular people in meticulously detailed beaded narratives centered on religious ceremonies, moments in Haitian history, and everyday life. The artist's insistence on the importance and ubiquity of Vodou spirits challenges Western art histories and foregrounds postmodern Black aesthetics and the role of Haiti in Black Atlantic visual culture.

Vodou in the Age of Consciousness gathers leading scholars, museum professionals, curators, and collectors to reflect on the role of Vodou in Haiti's Art, Culture, and History.

Participants include:

- Kyrah Malika Daniels, Assistant Professor of African American Studies at Emory University
- Peter Haffner, Assistant Professor of Art History at Centre College
- Eziaku Atuama Nwokocha, Assistant Professor of Africana Religions at the University of Miami, and author of Vodou en Vogue
- Patrick Polk, Curator of Latin American and Caribbean Popular Arts at The Fowler Museum at UCLA
- Joanna Robotham, Curator of Modern and Contemporary Art at The Tampa Museum of Art
- Kathryn Smith, Curator and Research Associate of Haitian Arts, The Fowler Museum at UCLA, and Curator of Myrlande Constant: The Work of Radiance.
